IN

Poonya Steel Processors Pvt. Ltd.] .. Applicant
(Ori.Petitioner)
Versus

1. State of Maharashtra & 2 ors.] .. Respondents

Mr. C.R. Naidu i/b M/s. C.R. Naidu & Co. for the applicant.

Mr. S.R. Nargolkar, AGP, for the respondent No.1.

CORAM: S.B. MHASE &
R.S. MOHITE, JJ.

DATED: 15TH JUNE, 2007

P.C. :

. Heard.

2. The copies of the Petition were directed to be supplied within a period of one week and Notices were directed to be issued. However, it appears that the copies were not supplied within time. The Office record shows that the matter reached the office on 24th April, 2007 and, therefore, it was well within time and compliance of the order could have been made within a period of one week. Instead, the allegations have been made that the matter has not reached the office for one week and, therefore, the compliance could not be made and thus, incorrect pretext has been taken to get the order recalled.

2. Now, the learned counsel for the petitioner states that though the copies have been submitted, they are not accepted by the office since the time within which the copies were to be submitted is over. In the interest of justice, we direct the office to accept the copies and issue Notice to the respondents, returnable after six weeks, however, subject to the cost of Rs.1,000/- to be paid to the Maharashtra State Legal Services Authority within a period of one week from today.
